

Admission of Non-Resident and Homeless Students/Tuition Charges

The district may enter into a written agreement with any student's district of residence under which the district of residence agrees to pay tuition to allow the student to attend school within the district.

When a nonresident student with a disability is accepted to attend school in Adams County School District #1, based on the availability of space and/or programs, the district of residence shall be responsible for paying as tuition any excess costs above the average per pupil operating revenues for educating the student according to federal and state laws and regulations. The agreement entered into by the two districts may or may not include monetary provisions.

Out-of-state students who wish to attend school in this district shall be charged tuition in accordance with the rates adopted by the Board on an annual basis.

The superintendent shall present to the Board for its consideration any request from parents or legal guardians for exceptions to this policy.

Admission of Homeless Students

Students defined in state law as homeless children shall be admitted without payment of tuition.

Transportation for homeless students who enroll in the district shall be furnished by the district as required pursuant to state and federal law.

Each homeless child shall be provided services for which the child is eligible comparable to services provided to other students in the school selected regardless of residency.
