

Student Conduct

Mapleton Public Schools strives to help students achieve maximum development of individual knowledge, skills, competence, and behavior patterns which will enable them to be responsible, contributing members of society.

In accordance with state law, the Board of Education shall adopt a written student conduct and discipline code based upon the principle that every student is expected to follow accepted rules of conduct and to show respect for and to obey persons in authority. The code shall emphasize that certain behavior, especially behavior that disrupts the classroom, is unacceptable and may result in disciplinary action. The code shall emphasize proportionate disciplinary interventions and consequences and the importance of keeping students engaged in learning. The code shall be enforced uniformly, fairly, and consistently for all students.

All District policies and regulations labeled starting with the letters “JIC” or “JK” (also listed below in the Cross References section) shall be considered as constituting the District’s conduct and discipline code.

The Board shall consult with parents/guardians, students, teachers, administrators and other community members in the development of the conduct and discipline code.

The rules shall not infringe upon constitutionally protected rights, shall be clearly and specifically described, shall be printed in a handbook or some other publication made available to students and parents/guardians, and shall have an effective date subsequent to the dissemination of the published handbook.

The Superintendent shall ensure that the conduct and discipline code is distributed to all students when joining the District, and that reasonable measures are taken to ensure each student is familiar with the code. Copies shall be posted or kept on file in each school of the District. In addition, any significant change in the code shall be distributed to students/families.

In all instances, students shall be expected to conduct themselves in keeping with their level of maturity, acting with due regard for the supervisory authority vested by the Board in all District employees, the educational purpose underlying all school activities, the widely shared use of school property, and the rights and welfare of other students. All employees of the District shall be expected to share the responsibility for supervising the behavior of students and for seeing that they abide by the established rules of conduct.

Adopted March 26, 2013, by the Board of Education for Mapleton Public Schools.
